town's water lines starting Monday, October 5 approximately 11 pm - through Friday, October 9th. They hope to be finished with the Ridgeview section by Wednesday morning. You may have a slight discoloration in your water that will go away if you run your water for a minute or 2!

WEATHER ALERT:

Please be careful in the heavy rains hitting the area today and over the weekend. Clear gutters and downspouts, be prepared for possible power outages, and don't try to cross roads covered in water.

REMINDER: Please consider subscribing to emergency alerts through the Alert Loudoun system. In addition to the County's alerts, the Town of Middleburg is able to send subscribers alerts about important items in town, such as a waterline break or scheduled line flushing. If you subscribed a few years ago, you must re-subscribe because the County changed to a new alert system. Subscribe at: http://www.loudoun.gov/alert

Election Day Volunteers needed:

The Office of Elections if reaching out to the Town of Middleburg to serve your polling location on Election Day. November 3, 2015
